

December 4th, 2009

Marlene Dortch
Secretary
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

RE: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation in MB Docket No 07-269 and GN Docket No 09-191

Ms. Dortch,

On December 3rd, 2009 Jean Prewitt, President and CEO of the Independent Film and Television Alliance; Lloyd Kaufman, Chairman of the Board of Directors, Independent Film and Television Alliance; and Claudia James, Principal, Podesta Group met with Commissioner Copps; Jamila Bess Johnson, Legal Advisor to Commissioner Copps; Joshua Cinelli; Legal Advisor to Commissioner Copps; and Jennifer Schneider, Chief Policy Advisor to Commissioner Copps.

They discussed the distribution of independent films on traditional media platforms and the impact on source diversity. IFTA reviewed points they covered in their comments made in the 2009 Annual Assessment of the Status of Competition in the Market for the Delivery of Video Programming. IFTA also discussed the net neutrality rule making including the importance of an open internet and the transparency and non-discrimination provisions.

Sincerely,

Claudia James

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'Claudia James', written in dark ink.

cc: Commissioner Copps
cc: Jamila Bess Johnson
cc: Joshua Cinelli
cc: Jennifer Schneider